Australian Financial Review Report

An article was published in the Australian Financial Review (“AFR”) entitled “GK Goh re-thinks Opal Aged Care Investment”. This report was also carried on Bloomberg.

The article states that “GK Goh Holdings is considering cashing in its chips at local residential aged care operator, Opal Aged Care. Street Talk understands GK Goh has started talking to parties that may be interested in taking a stake [in Opal].”

There is no truth to either statement.

Allium Holdings Pty Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of G. K. Goh Holdings Limited (“GK Goh”), and AMP Life each own 47.6% of Opal Aged Care, with Opal Aged Care’s management team owning the balance.

GK Goh remains committed to its partnership with AMP Life which continues to underpin Opal’s expected growth over the medium to long term. We believe that Opal is well positioned as one of the largest, most progressive and fastest-growing operators of residential aged care in Australia.
